RENOWNED MEZZO-SOPRANO
STEPHANIE BLYTHE on
A Musical Voyage in the Western Mediterranean

October 20 – 29, 2012

Aboard the All-Suite, 114-Guest Corinthian II
sailing from Naples, Italy to Cadiz, Spain

Overnight in Naples at the luxurious Hotel Excelsior before embarking the all-suite, 114-passenger Corinthian II for 7 spectacular days sailing with extraordinary guest artists and lecturers. On this splendid voyage, we are honored to have with us renowned artist mezzo-soprano Stephanie Blythe and esteemed lecturers Brian Kellow and Scott Barnes. This Musical Voyage will combine the transcendent joy of music with lectures and in-depth shore excursions to some of the most splendid centers of Mediterranean history and culture: Naples, Elba, Lucca, Marseilles, Barcelona, Motril, and Cadiz.

Fall is the ideal time of the year to cruise these ancient shores, and the landmark sites we visit, combined with the musical performances, make for a most memorable experience. Rates from $6,895 per person, double occupancy, including all shore excursions and musical performances.
